BIOGRAPHIES

JACK MOFFAT (King Henry II) was President of the NFCT when the group first moved to its present location. Since then he has appeared in and worked on dozens of productions. Among his acting credits are "Guys and Dolls", "Man of La Mancha", "The Crucible", "The Prince", "Little Foxes", "Mary, Mary", "See How They Run", "Separate Tables", "Twelfth Night" and "A Mid-summer Night's Dream". In addition, Jack has written and composed several original shows which have been performed here and elsewhere. He lives in Southold.

ANGELA TOMEI (Alais) is a former English teacher from Buffalo, N.Y. She appeared as a kit kat girl in "Cabaret" and in the chorus in "No, No Nanette". She has also worked behind the scenes in "A Thousand Clowns" and "Marigolds". Angela would like to thank Caroline Farrell, Marj Moffat, and Elisa Lieblein for their baby sitting services rendered.

BRIAN MONSELL (John) is the valedictorian of the senior class at Mattituck H.S. and has been involved in school plays for the past 3 years. He is also a member of Sterling Players, most recently appearing in "The Brick and the Rose".

MARK VOLINSKI (Richard) has appeared at the NFCT in "See How They Run" and "Wait Until Dark" as well as "Music Man" and "South Pacific" with Youth On Stage. Among his other credits include "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" and "House of Blue Leaves". Mark is a salesman with Volinski Olds in Southold.

BIOGRAPHIES (Continued)

JOHN WILLIAMS (Geoffrey) is making his theatrical debut with the NFCT. A resident of Greenport, he is a partner in Ackroyd Creative Services, a Mattituck advertising agency.

KATHY SHAW (Eleanor) is a newcomer to the NFCT after having appeared in productions at Mary Washington College in Virginia. A resident of Mattituck, Kathy is employed by Southold Savings Bank.

CHRIS YOUNG (Philip) is a recent graduate of Stony Brook School who has worked backstage on numerous NFCT productions. While in school Chris appeared in "Spoon River Anthology", "As You Like It" and "The Miser"...as well as last fall's "Vic's Vapors" at the NFCT.

BOB ACKROYD (Director) has appeared in a variety of NFCT productions including "Spoon River Anthology", "See How They Run", and "The Odd Couple". Most recently he played Murray in "A Thousand Clowns".

S. L. KELLY (Director) studied drama in college and has worked on and appeared in several NFCT productions.

JANET FREEMAN (Producer) is in her thirteenth year with the NFCT, where she has been Treasurer for two years as well as Party Chairperson for 3 years. She has worked a variety of backstage jobs including costumes, props, set decoration, and set construction. She also produced "Spoon River" and has appeared in "Auntie Mame" and "Forty Carats".
