BIOGRAPHIES

MARILEE SCHEER (Mrs. Manningham) lives in Laurel with her husband, Charlie, and two step children. She is employed by the Suffolk County Probation Department. Marilee's hobbies are needlepoint, reading, and biking. She has appeared in N.F.C.T. productions of "The Night of January 16th", "Country Girl" and "The Desk Set". Marilee produced the summer production of "Li'l Abner."

GEORGE ALDCROFT (Mr. Manningham) has resided in Southold for the past six years with his wife, Bernadette. He is employed by the Shelter Island School District as a guidance counselor. He is President of the East End Guidance Association. His hobbies include chess, backgammon and volleyball. This is George's first acting experience.

DAWN BRENNAN (Nancy) is making her first appearance at the N.F.C.T. In her high school days, Dawn appeared in "Our Town", "The Emperors New Clothes" and "By Any Other Name". Dawn is a Special Education teacher. She is married and lives in Hampton Bays with her husband and 3 children. Her hobbies are jogging and reading.

PRISCILLA SPRAGUE (Elizabeth) is a newcomer to the N.F.C.T. She is a secretary. Priscilla is single and lives in Hampton Bays. She likes cooking and decorating.

GEORGE STAHLER (Inspector Rough) is married and has 2 children, Charlie and Meredith. His hobbies are theatre and bridge. George's past experience includes N.F.C.T. roles in "Cabaret", "A Ms. by Any Other Name", "Kismet", "Of Thee I Sing", "Arsenic and Old Lace", and "A Man for All Seasons". He directed "Bertha . . ." George works for "Suffolk Life".

CHRIS YOUNG (Director) When Chris isn't dwelling upon the number "88" (as one invariably does in the piano business), he's home in Riverhead with his wife, Jeanne, taking care of their two month old daughter, Beth. His main interests are religion and music. When at the Stony Brook School, he appeared in such plays as "As You Like It" and "The Miser". His N.F.C.T. efforts include: Prince Philip in "Lion in Winter", and Richard Sumner in "The Desk Set". "Angel Street" is Chris' first directing experience.

BILL GAGE (Producer) is self-employed, single and lives in Hampton Bays. He likes reading, theatre and writing. Bill has been involved in all aspects of theatre work. His N.F.C.T. efforts have been in "The Desk Set" and "A Man For All Seasons". Bill is producing for the first time.

We invite your attention to improved exit facilities. A new door has been added to the west wall and the steps have been eliminated from the exit at the rear of the building. There have been panic bars installed on all doors making emergency exits much safer than ever before. We hope you will feel more secure with these improvements.
