JACK MOFFAT — This is Jack's 29th role at the NFCT since joining in 1960. As Tom in The Glass Menagerie he christened this theater for the NFCT. His most recent appearance was in Inherit the Wind.
ART WILKS — Art has been around the NFCT for more years than he cares to remember. This is his 30th production. He says if anyone really cares to know more, they can simply look at an old program. He still feels Brenny in The Peanut Butter Prince was his favorite, but he hopes his best is yet to come.
BRIAN GALLAGHER — Brian is married, has three children and lives in Hampton Bays. He is the District Sales Manager for I. C. Systems, Inc. He has previously appeared in NFCT's productions of Desk Set, A Man for All Seasons, and Inherit the Wind. He has also assisted in set construction and lighting for other NFCT productions.

PETER W. PERSON — Peter currently resides in East Moriches. For the last seven years he has traveled extensively, working in Philadelphia and Atlanta as a radio announcer. He returned last year and began studying acting at Suffolk Community College. While at S.C.C.C. Peter participated in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf and A Streetcar Named Desire. He is currently working on his B.A. with a major in theater. He has remained active in the media working as a free-lance announcer. This will be Peter's first performance at NFCT.

ED WISEMAN — Ed attends Rocky Point Junior High and was the male lead in The Music Man and Time Out for Ginger. He also played Algernon in The Importance of Being Earnest. He is also engaged in Impromptu where he plays Tony.
