presents

The KING and I

March 1992

On behalf of the entire membership of the North Fork Community Theatre, I'd like to extend a warm welcome to each of you.

It has been my privilege and honor to direct The King & I. Perhaps one of the most rewarding aspects of this show has been the enthusiasm and dedication of the cast and crew. Throughout the entire rehearsal schedule, all of them have worked tirelessly.

The mainstay of any musical is, of course, the Musical Director. Mr. Richard Sullivan, as well as being a good friend, has been my mentor and confidant. My special thanks goes to him as well as to the rest of the production staff. The cooperation of the members of our community exemplifies the spirit in which this theatre group was founded.

I hope you find our efforts enjoyable and thank you for attending the North Fork Community Theatre.

- Jim Barney, President

Wade Karlin (King's slave) — What fun! It's great to be around the NFCT again. This role was a toughie. But thanks to Phil, Bonnie, Mike and of course Welby D. Dog, he was able to pull it off. Hope you enjoy the show folks.

Eva Kelly (King's wife) — As a new member of NFCT, this is Eva's first performance on stage and she is delighted to be part of the King's harem. When not bowing to the King, Eva works in radio, sings with various choral groups, and does competitive ballroom dancing.

Kyle Kozora (Louis Leonowens) — Kyle, an eighth grade honor student and varsity wrestler in Greenport, is no stranger to the stage. He starred as Brandon in Christmas 1941, was Prince Louie in Molly Brown, and the Tineman in The Wizard of Oz. Contrary to what these roles suggest, Amy would like the audience to know that her feminist principles remain intact.

Dan McCarthy (The Interpreter) — Dan has been an NFCT member since his debut as Harry Shapiro in Stalag 17. A graduate of Iona College, Dan holds a BA in Speech/Dramatic Arts and attended the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. In 1974, Dan started a “professional collection” and holds Yul Brenner’s autograph, the professional “king”, a treasured possession.

Christine Mickaliger (King’s wife) — Chrissy was most recently seen in Sugar Babies for the RHF. Her other performances include Pizza Man and Kind Sir by the OPP and Dracula by the HTC. Chrissy would like to thank the casting crew for giving her the opportunity to play the role of subservient. It took her a lot of practice.

Sandy Moelius (King’s wife) — This is her first show at NFCT (anywhere, actually), but she has co-written and produced Bubblegum & Rainbows, a children’s musical. She sings with the Church of the Open Door’s music group. Sandy wants to thank Melissa and Ginger for getting her “on stage.”

Christine Rendel (Anna) — This is Christine Rendel’s first appearance with NFCT. She was actively involved in radio broadcasting and international community theatre in the Middle East where she lived and worked for many years. After moving to the North Fork last year, she joined North East Stage as Agatha Christie in the 1991 production of Murder on the Yellow Brick Road.

Jill Schondebare (King’s child) — Jill, a twelve-year-old seventh grader from Southold, is making her debut at NFCT. Jill enjoys music and, besides being part of the Southold School Chorus, plays the clarinet in band and piano. Much of Jill’s time is spent horseback riding in both the show ring and hunt field.

Eileen Sheldon (Lady Thiang) — She is a former board member having appeared in almost every musical at NFCT since Kismet in 1975, including her portrayal of the Mother Abyss in The Sound of Music, and several “straight” dramas. Eileen belongs to many East End theatre groups and feels privileged to be working with such a fine director and talented cast.

Michelle Walker (King’s child) — Michelle is an eighth grader at Southold High School. She enjoys playing field hockey and soccer. She also likes to attend baseball games. Michelle says she’s always wanted to act in a play, but this is her first attempt.

Sound of Music and was in Oliver!. She hopes to do more shows in the future and she always smiles!

Russell Wells (King) — Russ has been part of NFCT since 1972 when he appeared in Carnival. Since then he has appeared in Fiddler on the Roof, The Sound of Music, Oliver! and last year his first non-musical as the Captain in Mr. Roberts. He has been Musical Director for Youth on Stage productions of Bells are Ringing, South Pacific, and West Side Story. Russ teaches music in Greenport Public Schools and is music minister at Our Lady of Grace church in West Babylon.

Rob White (King's slave) — Rob is a resident of New Suffolk; an artist, editorial cartoonist, and landscape designer, but not necessarily in that order. His last appearance at the NFCT was in Deathtrap in 1984.

Dick Sullivan (Music Director) Dick is always pleased to be part of an NFCT production. He is particularly happy to be working with the children in this show since he has directed and produced many youth musicals for the South Country Schools. He recently retired after 37 years as a teacher and now looks forward to having the time to help out where needed at the theatre. His Siamese cat has been helping him with this score. If you ever heard one, it's no Puzzlement!!

Elizabeth Bibey (Producer) — This is Betty's second roll as producer with NFCT. Theatre is nothing new to Betty as she is married to an NFCT actor/director/board member. She has been involved in many aspects of the theater before, however, she would never permit any acknowledgement. Having produced Sweet Bird of Youth swayed her point of view on that; she now recognizes that acknowledgements are usually well-earned. A special thanks to the cast and crew and to all those people who helped and gave encouragement all along the way.

James Barney (Director) — Currently President of the NFCT, Jim is delighted to be directing his first musical with the NFCT. Jim's directorial duties included A Streetcar Named Desire and You Can't Take it With You. He also performs and/or directs other acting companies such as Orient Point Players, which he co-founded, and Northeast Stage. Jim would like to thank his wife and daughter, Pam and Amanda, and his favorite pet, Lulu Belle, for their support and unqualified affection.
