NORTH FORK
COMMUNITY THEATRE
presents

Jenny's Girls

May 2000

President's Message

Memorial Day is upon us, and Independence Day is around the corner. Now is the time to reflect upon the sacrifices that were made so that we are able to have the freedom of speech, religion, and choice that we sometimes take for granted.

At this time we are preparing our 2000-2001 season. We will soon be accepting plays for consideration for the 2001-2002 season. Any dues paying member may submit a show. Let me take this opportunity to invite you to attend our General Membership meeting on Monday, June 12, at 7:30pm. Become a member and take an active part in community theatre.

We hope you enjoy Jerry's Girls. The Board of Directors and I wish everyone a safe and happy summer.

Sincerely,
Caroline Ciochetto—President, NFCT

BIOGRAPHIES

Marilyn Corwin (Ensemble)—Marilyn lives in Greenport with her husband and is the mother of grown twin sons. She wants to thank the cast and crew of Jerry's Girls for a great time. Of all the shows she has done at the NFCT, this is up there with the best of them.

Ursula Demetriou (Ensemble)—Before moving to the East End with her husband and four children, Ursula lived in Queens. Growing up in Manhattan and working for Vidal Sassoon, she became exposed to the theater. Ursula spent a lot of time backstage giving final hair and make-up touches to the chorus members of Broadway musicals. For the past ten years, Ursula has been a member of the Byzantine Choir at the Transfiguration of Christ Church in Mattituck. She was also a Nicherin Soshu Buddhist and performed in various shows across the country. This is Ursula's debut with the NFCT.

Diane Groeber (Ensemble)—Diane is happy to be following in her daughter's footsteps. She enjoyed her debut as a chorus member in the RFCT production of Oliver! and is delighted to be part of this lively production. Thank you Bill, Dick and Company for giving me the opportunity. Especially, thanks to her wonderful husband Augie.

Katy Groeber (Ensemble)—This is Katy's third show with NFCT. She enjoyed working with Bill in Bye, Bye Birdie and A Chorus Line. Katy was also in the RFCT production of Oliver!

Katie Krause (Ensemble)—This is Katie's first time working with a community theater and she is very excited to be a part of NFCT. Katie's previous acting experience includes singing "Matchmaker" in Fiddler On The Roof for her school's variety show and playing the part of Lily St. Regis in her school's production of Annie. Katie is a senior at Mercy High School and hopes to major in musical theater in college next year.
