President's Message

As sometimes happens, something long-planned ends up having a very timely significance. Such is this production as it relates to our reaction to the tragedies of September 11. To some extent, many of us have experienced losses -- of innocence, of loved ones -- some personal trauma.

The theater can be an escape or perhaps, in this instance an inspiration, a lesson, an answer for dealing with the deeply emotional, intensely personal reactions to recent events .

With this in mind, we trust you will enjoy, and hopefully, benefit from tonight's performance.

Thank you for your continued support.

Guild Hall and Bella in Lost in Yonkers at NFCT—and for 2 years in NYC. Directing credits include Picnic, Early One Evening at the Rainbow Bar and Grille, and this spring's Dancing at Lughnasa at NFCT; Piece of My Heart and Prelude to a Kiss with The Sound Players. Toni thanks her great cast and crew, especially Vix, for all the hard work and fun times; and Jim, for doing it one more time.

Vicki Fleming (Assistant Director and Stage Manager)—Vicki says, "Thanks for the opportunity to be a part of yet another wonderful production. Break a leg, cast and crew!"

Chris Lombardo (Lighting Design)—Chris returns for his second NFCT production as lighting designer. This past spring's production of Dancing at Lughnasa was his debut. Chris spent four years as theatre technical director and lighting designer, as well as two years as faculty member at LIU—Southampton's Avram Theatre, where he also has been on stage in all five January Interacts and two musicals.

George Cork Maul (Musical Composition & Sound Design) is an East End composer, pianist and performance art specialist. He studied 12-tone composition with Isaac Nemiroff at Stony Brook where he earned a BA and went on to do graduate work in electronic music. After touring for several years and working as a studio musician, he began composing a wide range of serial and tonal music. His credits include modern songs, suites and dance pieces, several contemporary operas, three musical theatre works and music for software. His works have been performed in Canada and Ireland and he is currently writing a "Mock Chinese" Opera while doing research in storytelling and its effect on mythology and culture. He can be seen performing at local area vineyards, art shows and other venues.
