NFCT YOUTH PRODUCTION. PRESENTS...

Brigadoon

August 2002

President's Message

This Youth-on-Stage production is a shining example of the opportunities provided by NFCT to talented young people of the North Fork. Director Kimet Speed, musical director Kelli Baumann, assistant director and set builder Michael Hipp and producer Phil Wilcox are all veterans of NFCT Youth productions. Kimet and Mike, now married, first met while starring in "Joseph and the Technicolor Dreamcoat" in 1992. They have remained very active in the NFCT. It is not unusual to see one or both star in one production and then serve as ushers for the next show. Mike is Vice-President of the NFCT Board and ably chairs the Play reading Committee. The multi-talented Kelli and Phil have both lent themselves to NFCT since the mid-1980's. Matt Chizever (Tommy Albright in this production) will have his directorial debut with next summer's Youth production of "Little Shop of Horrors". NFCT is privileged to nurture the talent of these young people. The skills they master here benefit us and them. Enjoy their efforts tonight. Thank you for coming.

BIOGRAPHIES

Brett Chizever—(Charlie Dalrymple) Brett Chizever was last seen in the Vail Leavitt Music Hall's performance of The Stars of Tomorrow... Today! as the MC. His only other performance at the NFCT was Damn Yankees as Rocky. He would like to thank Mrs. Kimet, Mr. Mike and Mrs. Kelli for giving him this opportunity and promises they won't regret it. He would also like to thank his brother for being him. And he would like to dedicate this performance to his two best friends Josh Spivak and Erin Fincher. No matter what the actual distance is you are away, you'll always be the same place to me...in my heart.

Matthew W. Chizever—(Tommy Albright) This show will mark Matt's 4th with NFCT. Most recently, you may remember him as Capt. Philip Lombard in Ten Little Indians. Matt will be attending C.W. Post next spring to study vocal performance. He would like to thank his family for all their support, Dara for being Dara, and especially his girlfriend, Morgan, for all of her love, support, and being there for him through it all. Most importantly, Matt dedicates this performance to his grandfather, Larry Chizever, who acted as an inspiration for Tommy. As a young boy, Matt sat with his grandfather countless times, watching his favorite movie, Jack and the Beanstalk, starring Gene Kelly, Tommy of the film adaptation of Brigadoon.

Sean Cotter—This is Sean's third show with the NFCT. His first appearance was with Biloxi Blues, and then he appeared in last year's summer show Damn Yankees. He enjoys being on stage very much. Sean goes to Stony Brook College where he is learning to teach high school math and also cheerleads at the college.

Morgan Jonelle Becht—(Meg Brockie) Brigadoon marks Morgan's second performance on the NFCT stage. Previously she played the role of Lola in the youth production of Damn Yankees (2001). Some of her other stage credits include SHS productions of Godspell (2001) and Grease (1999). Morgan was also a member of the 2001 All-State Women's Choir. Now a sophomore in college, she has recently transferred to C.W. Post and is studying Secondary Math Education with a minor in Vocal Performance. Morgan would like to send a tremendous Thank you to Kimet, Mike, Kelli, and the cast for making this summer another wonderful experience! And most of all, she thanks the Real Love of her Life, Matt, for all of his encouragement and love throughout each and every day.

Mark Arpaia—(Harry Beaton) This is Mark's first theatre experience since his 4th grade play performance. He is 15 years old and entering his junior year at Mattituck High School.

Kelli J. Baumann—(Musical Director) Kelli made her debut on the NFCT stage back in 1984, as Baby June in Gypsy. She appeared in numerous Adult and Youth musicals over the years before being recruited in her teens to accompany and direct music. Loving what she was doing, she went on to pursue a degree in Music Education from SUNY Fredonia and a Master's Degree from SUNY Stony Brook. She was the Choral Director at the Hampton Bays Secondary School for five years, before teaching and accompanying in the Southold School District. Presently she is a full time mom who teaches privately. Other accompanying credits include: The Hampton's Music Educator's Association festivals, musicals at Southold, Southampton, and Greenport High Schools, the North Fork Chorale, and NYSSMA soloists. She resides in Southold with her husband Ed, and two children, Katie and Jonathan. To Kimet, Mike, and Phil—it was fun being on stage with you when we were in the Youth musicals. I've enjoyed working with you on the other side this time around. Thanks for the opportunity.
