written by Dale Wasserman | adapted from the novel by Ken Kesey

MARCH 14 - 30

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear NFCT Friends,

Welcome to the North Fork Community Theatre's performance of "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest." We are glad to welcome back veteran director Bob Kaplan to the NFCT along with a cast of new and returning actors to our stage.

We would like to thank you, our audience and supporters, for your ongoing help with the NFCT Renovation Campaign. The Renovation Campaign's goal is to maintain and improve both the physical building as well as the production values of the show. For example, the new LED lights allow us more flexibility and creativity in setting the mood for each scene. Please take a look at the Renovation Campaign Brochure for more examples of projects that we hope to be able to do with your support.

Please save the date of Saturday June 14th for the NFCT Gala, our annual fundraiser at Stonewalls, which will feature entertainment from NFCT performers. All ticket sales as well as raffle and auctions during the Gala will be MATCHED, so please get together a group of friends to attend the Gala and have a great time, while supporting the NFCT!

We hope you enjoy the show!

CAST BIOGRAPHIES

Jose Coropuna (Technician) This is Jose's debut acting experience in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Jose is not new to the stage when it comes to singing. This vocal Tenor is originally from Lima, Peru. He is a graduate of Riverhead High School and is attending Suffolk Community College. He's been part of the Harvest Gospel Choir and is a performing vocal and violin student at East End School of the Arts in Riverhead. Jose is a new member of the NFCT and is looking forward to being part of this show and becoming more involved with the theatre. He would like to thank the cast and crew for their support.

Jennifer Eager (Sandy) is happy to be back on stage at NFCT. Last season she played Mrs. Mullin in Carousel and was in the ensemble of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. A former theater minor many years ago, it's fun to meet new people and work on community theater right here on the north fork. Thanks to everyone who made this show a success, and to my family for their patience and love through the whole process. Enjoy the show!

Rebecca Edana (Nurse Ratched) is thrilled to be making her NFCT debut. She loves the theater and hopes that she is setting a good example for her children by teaching them to follow their dreams. A special thank you to Mat and Mary for their constant support and encouragement. Rebecca would like to dedicate these performances in loving memory of Jack Schwartz, who was always one of her biggest fans.

Derek Hoffman (Charles Atkins Cheswick III) is very excited to make his return to the stage here at NFCT. He studied intensive method acting and directing at Syracuse University and has been very involved in teaching and directing theater for many years at French Woods Festival of the Performing Arts. Some of his most memorable acting roles include: John Merrick in The Elephant Man, Randle P. McMurphy in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest and Andrew Crocker-Harris in The Browning Version. He would like to thank his family and friends and most especially his wife Anita for her encouragement and support.

John Hudson (Anthony Martini) John was the Stage Manager for Steel Magnolias. He was also the Director for I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change. John has acted in the NFCT productions of Carousel, The King and I, How To Succeed in Business, Arsenic and Old Lace, and My Fair Lady. John has been involved with the following NFCT's show's: Hello Dolly, Music Man, Bells A' Ringin', and Guys and Dolls. He is looking forward to working director, Bob Kaplan again in another NFCT production!

Wade Karlin (Chief Bromden) is thrilled and excited to be part of this production! A resident of Mattituck, Wade is a commercial fisherman & Yoga instructor! Wade's been involved with the NFCT since 1986 & looks forward to many more years!

Rusty Kransky (Dale Harding) Born in Tasmania, Rusty made his NFCT debut in 1999 as Sweeney Todd, and has played many other roles including Henry Higgins in My Fair Lady, Don Quixote in Man of La Mancha, and The King in The King and I. He was last seen as Norman in On Golden Pond. "I always knew I'd end up in the loony bin eventually!"

Tara O'Shea (Candy) is happy to be back on stage at the North Fork Community Theatre and is excited to be part of this production of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's

Nest. She has performed in theatre, television and film. Some of her film credits are Pearl Harbor, Bedazzled, The Bodyguard; Death Becomes Her. Television credits are: Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye, Carolina in the City. Some of her most recent theatre performances are: The Dining Room and Hay Fever with Northeast Stage. Tara has recently moved back home to the north fork after spending many years out in Hollywood. Tara would like to thank the cast and crew.

Laura Pace (Aide Warren) This is Laura's fourth time performing at NFCT. She is really excited for the opportunity to once again make magic with another talented group of actors.

Peter Peterson (Billy Bibbitt) is very excited to be a part of this production. He has performed at the NFCT for the past five years. His most recent productions include Legally Blonde, South Pacific, and How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. He is grateful to work with such a talented cast and crew. Enjoy the show!

Director's Note

My first concern was whether One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest would hold up. Even though it started as a book by Ken Kesey and became a play, it is the movie with Jack Nicholson's iconic portrayal of McMurphy that most people remember. (Well, most people of the boomer generation.) Would a piece that spoke to the rebelliousness of the Hippie generation resonate with today's society? The book and play, after all, used the metaphor of a psychiatric hospital to highlight the "power and control" issues of the 60's and 70's.

Then it dawned on me that concerns about "power and control" have not gone away. It was at that point that each scene's power struggles became clear and meaningful. There is, of course, the central conflict between Nurse Ratched and Randall P. McMurphy. But there are other struggles between Harding and McMurphy, Nurse Ratched and Billy, and Nurse Ratched and Dr. Spivey.

There is a lot of humor in this play that at times emanates from the behavior of the mentally ill patients. Back then, that was fair game. But, our society has learned a lot about mental illness since the 60's. Nevertheless, playwright Dale Wasserman sees the patients with love and sympathy.

There is tragedy in this play which seems to come from society's inability to deal with mental illness with sensitivity and understanding. It's sad that we still don't seem to view mental illness with the same intensity and concern that we do other serious (viral and bacteriological) illnesses.

-Bob Kaplan, Director

Jim Pearsall (Dr. Spivey) This is Jim's second appearance at NFCT, having first appeared in The King and I in 2012. Since then he has kept busy appearing in Northeast Stage's productions of The Importance of Being Earnest (In East Hampton), Henry V and Hay Fever. He most recently appeared in NSUMC's production of Heaven Cent. He's thrilled to be back on the NFCT stage with his King and I castmates - Wade, John, and Rusty. Jim is dedicating his performances in this show to his father Jim Sr., former president of the Warner Robins Little Theatre, who passed away on February 8th.

Alan Stewart (Randle Patrick McMurphy) is a local actor residing in Southold. His last NFCT performance was in last year's production of Doubt. He has previously appeared in such shows as Anything Goes, Labor Day and Rumors. He would like to thank the cast and crew for their support and he would like to give a special thanks to Bob, Dee, Marilee & Babette for having faith in him and for giving him the chance to play the role of McMurphy.

Lena Trbojevic (Nurse Flinn) Lena Trbojevic is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College. This is her first production with the North Fork Community Theater.

Robert Wesson (Aide Williams) is pleased to be part of the North Fork Community Theatre's production of One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. This is Robert's debut with the theatre. His past productions have been with Northeast Stage's productions of Henry the V and Hay Fever. He would like to thank the cast and crew for their support.

PRODUCTION BIOGRAPHIES

Deanna Andes (Producer) North Fork Community Theatre: Rabbit Hole, The Three Sisters, Harvey, Night Mother and Carousel. Costumer for Carousel. She has been an active member of NFCT since 2008 and currently serves on the Board of Directors as Vice-President. She would like to thank the cast, crew and many talented people who volunteered their time to make One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Love and thanks to J.C.J.P.M.

Bob Kaplan (Director) is thrilled to be back at NFCT after a 5 year hiatus. Bob has been acting and directing at various theater companies around Long Island for the last 25 years. At NFCT, he was in The Price and Early One Evening At The Rainbow Bar & Grill and he directed Man of La Mancha and Wait Until Dark. At other venues, he has enjoyed acting in Laughter on the 23rd Floor and The Night of the Iguana and recently directed the NY area premiere of Becky's New Car, as well as Sylvia, Glengarry Glen Ross and How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. Of course, without the support of his leading lady and co-star son at home, who support his passion for live theater, he'd be at home right now with a remote control in his hand.

Special Thanks To...

Art Show at the NFCT

Proceeds to support the NFCT Renovation Campaign

The NFCT's first art show features Mattituck artist and longtime NFCT member Patricia Feiler and runs from Dec. 14th through May 1st. Her solo show entitled "North Fork Stories in Light and Color" features fifteen works in oil and acrylic on canvas that range in size from 16" x 16" (Wednesday Night Race") and 30" x 30" (Snow covered Spruce) to the expansive 24" x 48 "Richmond Creek."

In addition to fifteen original paintings, there are framed photo reproductions in the theater that are also available for purchase. Patricia Feiler will donate a portion of the proceeds to the NFCT Renovation Campaign. These donated proceeds will then be matched dollar for dollar by Emilie and Michael Corey. For information and sales contact Mary Motto-Kalich at 917-334-6639 or Patricia Feiler pfeiler@optonline.net.

NFCT Community Events

Join other NFCT friends and supporters at NFCT Community Events. Past events include bowling, ice skating, trips to see RFCT's Nunsense, and a Karaoke night.

The next NFCT Community Event is a trip to see The Boy Friend on Saturday March 29th at 2:30PM produced by the Gingerbread Players in Forest Hills, Queens. After the show, we will have dinner at Alberto's on Metropolitan Avenue. To join us, contact Mary Motto Kalich at 917-334-6639 or marymotto@yahoo.com

To hear more about NFCT Community Events, become a member ($10) and get monthly newsletters (see back cover to sign up).

BUILDING ON TRADITION CAMPAIGN

Thank you for helping to Build on the Tradition of over 55 years of live theatre on the North Fork . In the fall of 2012, with your help, the NFCT purchased our "Home Sweet Home," the building in which we have performed for over 50 years. This past summer, Emilie and Michael Corey kick-started a Renovation Campaign: they will match all donations up to $300,000 through December 31, 2015. We greatly appreciate your past and future support. You can help by volunteering (e-mail campaign@nfct.com or call Mary Motto Kalich at 917-334-6639) or by making a tax deductible contribution at www.nfct.com.
