

NORTH FORK COMMUNITY THEATRE

HOLIDAY
SURVIVAL GUIDE:
A MUSICAL REVUE

December 3-5, 2021

Dear NFCT patrons,

It's Thanksgiving break while I write this and I'm taking a break from the last minute preparations of this show to reflect on how thankful I am to be part of the NFCT community. In the past week, I've met new volunteers that came to lend a hand as we emptied and organized the shed, and watched new performers on the NFCT stage get a little boost of confidence as their number starts to come together. I love watching new people find ways to feel at home at the NFCT. It makes all of the hard work feel worth it, but this is not a moment to make new friends and forget about the old. What I'm most thankful for are all of the "old" NFCT friends that have supported us while the theatre was dark, helped make digital content to keep our community feeling connected and showed up repeatedly at cleanup days because we're proud of our home sweet home. I'm thankful for you all, old and new alike, and I'm excited to kick off this holiday season with a celebration of some fantastic musical numbers.

Liz Liszanckie
President

P.S. Don't forget that we have a second holiday show running Dec 17-19. "A Tuna Christmas" is one unholy night, two undaunted actors, and 17 unforgettable characters all wrapped up into a theatrical gift of unquantifiable holiday fun!

NORTH FORK COMMUNITY THEATRE Annual Appeal "Building on Tradition"

We are very excited to have re-opened the theater with a full season of plays and musicals. It is wonderful to be able to perform in front of a live audience once again!

Over this past year we have completed an 'Attic Renovation,' adding heat/air conditioning and 'finishing' our Lighting Booth and Costume/Prop areas. Thank you to the dozens of volunteers who helped go through all of our costumes/props and organize them. Looking forward, we plan to work on the interior of the theatre, including the bathrooms, seats, and auditorium. Thank you for your ongoing support which has helped us transform the theater. Please consider making a donation to the Theatre this year.

You can donate online at www.nfct.com or by returning the form on the back cover. For more information or a tour of the theater, contact Mary Motto Kalich at 917-334-6639 or campaign@nfct.com.

Adele Wallach Photography

Artist Statement

Inspired by my best friend Marshall, I began taking photographs when I was 15 years old and in high school. My Konica rangefinder was a constant companion and together we generated more rolls of film than I can count. Through the years photography has been my way to find peace and enjoy all the beauty the world has to offer.

In 2016, I retired after 25 years teaching special needs students of all different abilities. It was an extremely rewarding job and it gave me the opportunity to teach my students how to use a camera and take pictures of their world and how they perceived it.

Retirement has been a wonderful gift to photograph every day. To be able to run out at sunrise and sunset and witness the amazing light over The East End of Long Island. Exploring the North Fork back roads and the Hamptons' beaches and marshes has been amazing. It's a gift that keeps on bringing me hope and joy.

My work has been shown at The East End Arts Council for both Member and Juried Shows and won Honorable Mention for pieces I have submitted. I have also exhibited at the Fieldler Gallery and Wm. Floyd Library in Greenport, the Mattituck Laurel Library, and the Cutchogue-New Suffolk Library. I won People's Choice at a Juried Show at The Old Town Art's and Crafts Guild in Cutchogue as well as two other shows there in the past 3 years.

I belong to the Photo Club at the Riverhead Free Library and was accepted into the 2019 PEACE Exhibit where I won Honorable Mention. I am currently the President of The Riverhead Photo Club and the Chairman of the Photography Committee at the Riverhead Free Library.
