August 6-8, 2021

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear NFCT patrons,

Welcome back to the NFCT! I can't believe that I finally get to say those words. We were in the middle of the run of Wolf Hall when the world abruptly shut down and the theatre hasn't felt the same without an audience since.

That's not to say that the theatre has been empty. We took advantage of the downtime and renovated our attic space. The newly wrapped beams and air-conditioned space provide a much cleaner & organized storage area for our costumes, props and lighting equipment.

We have produced several virtual offerings from recorded variety shows to live play readings. We were so thankful to have those opportunities, but NOTHING beats live theatre.

We're back and what better way to kick things off then with the outstanding talent the Youth on Stage program has to offer. We celebrated 50 years of the YOS program virtually last year, and if this year is any indication the next 50 years are going to be amazing.

Enjoy the show from our outdated, slightly awkward seats that we all missed so much!

Congrats to Cast & Crew!

Dear Audience,

Welcome back! Finally, we are able to join in our home to enjoy live theatre again! Although the past year has been full of troubles, unknowns, and countless worries, we are back! Last summer, we were fortunate enough to join together virtually. Our youths were here as any normal summer rehearsing daily, working together to create a new kind of art. However, things were not the same. Masks covered our voices, and fear covered our hearts. Many missed important celebrations such as graduations, proms, award ceremonies, and final performances in schools. Many missed the incoming of new family members, and the passings of those we love. We weren't sure of when we would be back sharing our love for theatre with the people who make performing that much more exciting! You, the audience!

It is my pleasure to be back this summer to reopen the NFCT with our first live performance with an audience. Our goal this summer was to provide brief but impactful showcases to demonstrate several themes: friendship, family, and home. These themes carried us through being quarantined for many months, unsure of when the world and theatre would reopen. Finally, we are back! We are so excited to share our work with you, and hope you enjoy.

BUILDING ON TRADITION CAMPAIGN

Thank you for your support of the North Fork Community Theatre! With your help we are renovating our beloved theatre. Our plan is to keep the building's historic charm, but make significant improvements to the theater to enable our patrons to better see, hear and experience live theatre. The first phase of the renovations which was completed in 2019 included an expanded stage and orchestra pit, and modern lighting and rigging infrastructure. The next phase of renovations will include the seats, lobby and bathrooms! Please consider making a donation today!
